

A gourmet getaway Advertising Feature

An epicurean escape

If delving deep into Jonah's much-lauded cellar stocked with 1600 labels of wine is your stuff of dreams, why not take it up a notch and book yourself in for a sleepover.

Head sommelier Niels Sluiman, who has worked in some of the world's most outstanding Michelin-starred restaurants, is keen to share his passion, knowledge and experience.

He'll help indulge your wine fantasy by matching Jonah's award-winning wine list, one of the largest in the country with more than 11,000 bottles of vintage Australian and international wines, to executive chef Matteo Zamboni's delicious contemporary Australian cuisine.

Rather than debate the designated driver role, book a room and let Sluiman take you on a wine adventure.

Overlooking Sydney's Whale Beach, Jonah's has been creating memories and delivering extraordinary experiences for 90 years.

"Jonah's has such a rich history. Ninety years is an incredible milestone – even more remarkable given the fleeting nature of the hospitality industry," says Sluiman.

"Jonah's has more than earned its reputation for being one of Australia's most luxurious hideaway retreats with its refurbished boutique hotel, stunning ocean views and hatted restaurant."

The Jonah's experience has always been a drawcard for high-profile guests. International and local celebrities, as well as many of Sydney and Australia's business and political elite, have frequented Jonah's over its 90 years.

"Jonah's has been the venue for many celebrity weddings as well as hosting some of the world's biggest stars including a sample as follows; Mick Jagger, Jerry Hall, Rod Stewart, Bono, Joan Collins, Sir Anthony Hopkins, Gerard Butler, Elle Macpherson, Sir Michael Caine, Kevin Spacey, Queen, Sam Smith, Justin Bieber and One Direction," says Sluiman.

"There really has been too many to mention."

Not far from the bustle of Sydney's CBD, Jonah's is the ideal destination to escape, relax and indulge with its 11 boutique hotel rooms, each with a private balcony with panoramic ocean views.

"The view from the clifftop overlooking beautiful Whale Beach is hard to compare with anywhere else," says Sluiman. "You are close to the city but you also feel like you're on the Riviera".

With several packages and experiences to choose from, Sluiman says the Stay & Play package (from $898 per person twin share) is one certain to make memories.

"As part of the Stay & Play Package, you'll not only discover and appreciate how lucky we are here at Jonah's but also enjoy the beautiful Pittwater with a two-hour cruise on a Beneteau Oceanis yacht and lunching on a Jonah's picnic hamper complete with a bottle of Champagne Bollinger NV," says Sluiman.

Jonah's signature dish, the Frutti di Mare seafood platter for two.

"Check into your Ocean Retreat Room to relax in the afternoon before dining in the restaurant that evening. Retire to your room, blissfully content and wake to indulge a little more with an a la carte breakfast.

"Some very lucky people take it to the next level by arriving and departing Jonah's by limousine or Sydney Seaplane."

Now that's total rock star.

RESTAURANT & BOUTIQUE HOTEL

Whale Beach

69 Bynya Rd, Whale Beach | P (02) 9974 5599 | www.jonahs.com.au | enquiries@jonahs.com.au

